Hittinger &amp; Carroll Proprietors.

H. R. Carroll, Business Manager.

J. H. Benjamin, Editor.

The colonel is a "progressive of the progressive" and the only way to head him off is with an entirely different type of man.—Banner.

We tried to head him off with that sort of a man in 1904.

My friends, some people have big ideas about government. There is a tendency to regulate everything by law. The minute a fellow gets into trouble, he goes to the legislature and tries to secure the passage of an act. We have a great many laws on the statute books now to which no attention is paid, but if I am elected governor, I shall endeavor to have all the laws observed and enforced.—J. W. Watson, Candidate for Governor.

Comment is unnecessary.

Our friend, Mr. Toomer, the lamp-holder-out-to-burn candidate for congressman at large, is undoubtedly a talented lawyer, but he is mighty shy on geography. That is, unless some of his friends misrepresent him. Said friends say that he intends to have the Florida ship canal dug at once, to furnish a short cut to the Panama canal. Now, the Florida ship canal, whenever it is cut, will be a mighty fine thing for local and coast traffic, but the Star can't see how any person with an attack of reach ever manages to delude himself into the idea that ships will ever go out of their way to pass thru it on their way to Colon. If it is cut right straight across the peninsula, a ship from Savannah, Brunswick, Fernandina or Jacksonville might save a little time by going thru it, but a ship from further north, or from Europe, to use it would have to go out of the way and pay canal tolls to boot.

EASTLAKE

Eastlake, April 16.—Mrs. H. M. Hampton of Ocala with a small party of young friends autographed to Eastlake Monday and Tuesday afternoon at various points on the lake. Launch Bilkien was chartered for a ride to the foot of the lake and return, which added much pleasure to the occasion. Mr. J. G. Lege furnished the fishing equipment at Woodman dock for the pleasure of the party during the afternoon.

Mrs. Esteridge and little son of Mulberry, were Monday morning arrivals at Eastlake. They are guests at the G. Crawford home this week. The lovely new home of Mrs. Anna Martin, on New York avenue, is nearing completion.

Many of the property owners at Eastlake are repainting and otherwise improving their homes.

Word received from New York City the past week by the H. Schroder household assures them and their many friends that Mrs. Schroder is recovering nicely from the serious operation that she underwent at a hospital there some six or more weeks ago. Mrs. Schroder expects to be able to return to the Silver Lake home in about two weeks.

Dr. Henry has been in daily attendance of several Eastlake visitors the past week. The condition of Miss Wetherbee, sister of W. E. Wetherbee, at one of the small cottages, is reported as slightly improved.

Mrs. Anna Martin, who spent last week in Ocala with her granddaughter, Miss Blair Woodrow, returned to Eastlake Saturday. She was accompanied by Miss Maud McIntosh, who will remain ten days.

The last of the citrus fruit shipments for this season are being made this week. The new crops are promising heavy returns for the fall trade. Robert Fosnot is the possessor of a new 1912 model Flying Merkel motorcycle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Woodrow, who have been spending some time at Blair Villa, returned to Ocala Friday. Among the numerous Ocala friends who visited at this pleasant home the past week were Mrs. Weathers and Mrs. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Munroe of Ocala who are spending the month at "The Oaks," are enjoying brief visits from their unnumbered friends. The sojourns of Mr. and Mrs. Munroe at Eastlake are always periods of pleasure to all concerned.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NEWS

In the Christian Endeavor World Ocala Juniors were commended for activity in local press work.

Good reports are coming from all sections of the state showing that the efficiency campaign as a bottom-rock reality is here in Florida. Several societies have sent in the annual reports for which blanks were sent them by the state junior superintendent and the secretary. It is hoped that every society will report also promptly to the district officers who are asking for statistics. It seems now as if we were to have a really encouraging report by the state secretary in regard to the convention, as not only there have been several new societies started, but wide-awake folks are looking out for places to organize more.

The "little secretary" leaves Interlachen on April 16th. Three sessions of the combined Congregational Association with Men's Forward Movement Convention, in Sanford, are to be attended. On the 17th the next stop will be Winter Garden, where church members of a former church parish are to be visited. Gotha and Ocoee young people have the closing days of the secretary's vacation before the convention in Kissimmee, May 2-5th. She is anticipating meeting many loved friends there, also the making of new friendships.

Mr. Linn and the Kissimmee people are busy planning for our convention and workers write enthusiastically of plans to attend.

Splendid news letters have come from all districts recently.

Grace A. Townesnd.

Interlachen, April 15th.

Mrs. W. W. Harris returned to her home in Ocala last night after a delightful visit in Jacksonville. She spent last week with Mrs. E. J. Triay, at her beautiful home on Duval street, and spent a couple of days with Mrs. George W. Wilson in Springfield. Sunday she returned to Mrs. Triay's and left last night for her home. Mrs. Harris has many friends in Jacksonville and is always pleasantly entertained.—Times-Union.

Meanopy had another disastrous fire last Friday morning. The large brick building belonging to E. C. Child, and occupied as a general store by B. W. Fontaine, was destroyed with its contents. The building was insured for $300. Mr. Fontaine's stock was estimated at $25,000 and he carried only $7000 insurance.

Hickory Nut Cake

(Recipe by Mrs. Sara Tyson Rowe)

Four ounces Cottole; two cups flour; four eggs whites; one and one-half cups sugar; three-quarters cup water; one cup hickory nut kernels; one teaspoonful baking powder.

Beat Cottole and sugar to a cream, add water and flour, stir until smooth; add half the well beaten whites; then the nuts; then the remainder of the whites and the baking powder. Pour into square flat pans, lined with greased paper, to the depth of three inches and bake in moderate oven forty-five minutes.

Try this recipe and prove that Cottole will make just as light and tasty cake as butter, and at considerably less expense for shortening.

ALL THE WORLD STANDS AGAINT

AT THE SINKING OF THE WHITE STAR LINER TITANIC

With at Least 1,500 of Her Passengers and Crew—Greatest Marine Disaster in History

New York, April 16.—More than 1,500 persons, it is feared, sank to death early Monday, when within four hours after she crashed into an iceberg, the mammoth White Star liner steamer Titanic, bound from Liverpool to New York, on her maiden voyage, went to the bottom off the New Foundland banks. Of the approximately 2,200 persons on board the giant steamer, some of world-wide prominence, only 475 are known to have been saved. The White Star Line offices in New York, while keeping up hope to the last, were free to admit there had been "horrible loss of life."

Accepting the early estimates of the fatality list as accurate the disaster is the greatest in the maritime history of the world. Nearest approaching it in magnitude were the disasters to the steamer Atlantic in 1873 when 573 lives were lost and to La Bourgogne in 1898 with a fatality list of 571.

Should it prove that other liners, notably the Allied liners Parisian and Virginian, known to have been in the vicinity of the Titanic, had picked up other of her passengers, the extent of the calamity would be greatly reduced. This hope still lingers.

News of the sinking of the liner and the terrible loss of life in consequence came early last evening with all the greater shock because hope had been buoyed up all day by reports that the steamship, although badly damaged, was not in a sinking condition and that all her passengers had been safely taken off. The messages were mostly unofficial and none came direct from the liner, so the public at large remained of possible bad news to come.

Shortly after 7 o'clock Monday night there came from Cape Race, within 400 miles of where the liner had struck the iceberg, word that at 2:30 o'clock Monday morning, three hours and fifty-five minutes after receiving her death blow, the Titanic had sunk. The news came from the steamer Carpathia, relayed by the White Star liner Olympic, and reached by the time the Carpathia, outward bound from New York and racing for the Titanic on a wireless call, reached the scene of the doomed vessel had sunk.

Left on the surface, however, were lifeboats from the Titanic and in them, as appears from the meagre reports received up to a late hour, were some 675 survivors of the disaster. These, according to the advices, the Carpathia picked up on her way with them from New York.

Terse and Terrific

The Olympic's dispatch was as follows:

"Carpathia reached the Titanic position at daylight. Found boats and wreckage only. Titanic sank about 2:30 a. m. In 41-16 north, 50-14 west. All her boats accounted for containing about 675 souls saved, crew and passengers included. Nearly all saved women and children. Leyland liner California remained and searching exact position of disaster. Loss likely total 1,800 souls."

It is believed here that this is an error, unless the Titanic had more passengers on board than reported. The list as given out showed 1,310 passengers and a crew of 860, or 2,170 in all. Deducting 675, the known saved, would indicate a loss of 1,495 persons.

Notable persons, travelers on the Titanic whose fate was in doubt in the lack of definite advices as to the identity of the survivors, were Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Major Archibald Butt, aide to President Taft; Charles M. Hays, president of the Grand Trunk Pacific of Canada, his wife and daughter; W. T. Stead, Benjamin Guinness, P. D. Millet, the artist, and J. G. Widener of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Isador Straus, J. B. Thayer, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad; J. B. Ismay, Henry B. Harris, the theatrical manager, and Mrs. Harris, and Col. Washington Roebling, builder of the Brooklyn bridge.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and from the first day, it seemed to help."

"I had almost lost my reason, but thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommended it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."

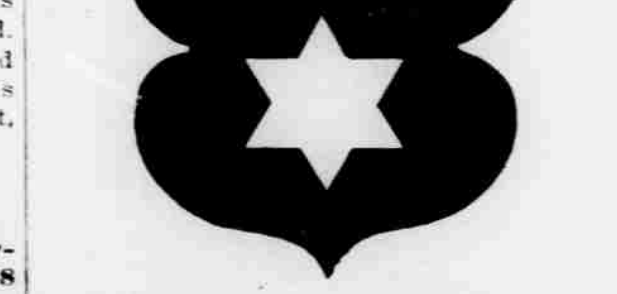

Cardui acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health.

It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical.

Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women. In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardui.

The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways. Try it.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

EDWIN SPENCER

To the Democratic Voters of Marion County: I hereby announce myself a candidate for representative from this county to the next legislature, and solicit the support of the voters, promising, if elected, to represent the people in all measures looking to their welfare. Edwin Spencer, Jr.

W. J. CROSBY

To the Democratic Voters of Marion County, Florida: I have decided to become a candidate in the coming primary for member of the next legislature and I solicit and will appreciate your support. Respectfully, W. J. Crosby.

Clara, Fla., Feb. 28.

SHERIFF

JOHN P. GALLOWAY To the Democratic Voters of Marion County: I announce myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of sheriff of Marion county, subject to the democratic primaries, to be held on the 30th day of April, 1912, and respectfully solicit the support of the people of Marion county.

Trusting that my record has been such that it will warrant your support in the future, I am, Yours very respectfully, John P. Galloway.

COUNTY JUDGE

WM. M. GOBER

To the Democratic Voters of Marion County: I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of county judge of Marion county, subject to the democratic primaries, to be held on the 30th day of April, and in so doing I am not unmindful of the fact that I am personally unknown to many of the voters of the county, but for the reason that I have not the money to make an active canvass of the county, I shall content myself with placing my name before the people as best I can. I have no influential or wealthy friends or relatives on whom to rely for support in furthering my candidacy, but rely entirely on the wishes of the people as expressed at the polls should they see fit to honor me with the office, I shall endeavor to fully compensate by faithful attention to the duties of the office, should they see fit to refuse me the office, I shall accept their choice without criticism, as my struggles and disappointments in life have been too many to allow it to deter me in my efforts to meet with success in my chosen profession. I am not a politician within the meaning of one constantly seeking an office, and am now asking for office only for the reason that I feel capable of filling it to the satisfaction of all, and that it will materially aid me in many ways in my profession.

I assure those who see fit to support me of my sincere appreciation. Respectfully submitted, Wm. M. Gober.

W. E. SMITH

I am a candidate for county judge of Marion county, subject to the democratic primaries. During the last three years, while I worked as book-keeper during the day, I studied law at night and January last I went before the supreme court and was examined upon twenty-three branches of American law (one of which was American law of administration) and was admitted to practice law in all the courts of Florida. This fact will assure you that I am competent to perform all the duties of county judge.

Now, my friends and fellow democrats, I ask you to take the trouble to inquire to who and what I am, and, if from these inquiries, you are satisfied that I am competent and merit your support, I will appreciate your confidence and will, if elected to the office of county judge, never betray your trust. W. E. Smith.

CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT

S. T. SISTRUNK

To the Democratic Voters of Marion County: At the earnest solicitation of many of our people, I announce myself a candidate for re-election as clerk of the circuit court for Marion county. I am not unmindful of the kindness shown me in the past, and the splendid vote heretofore given me, for which, as you know, I have always been grateful. If you again elect me, I will give my best ability (gained from experience) to the discharge of the many duties of the office. With assurance to all of my kindred feeling for past favors, I again solicit your influence in my behalf. S. T. Sistrunk.

P. H. NUGENT

I respectfully state to the people of this county that I am a candidate for the nomination for clerk of the circuit court in the coming primary, and solicit their support. P. H. Nugent.

TAX ASSESSOR

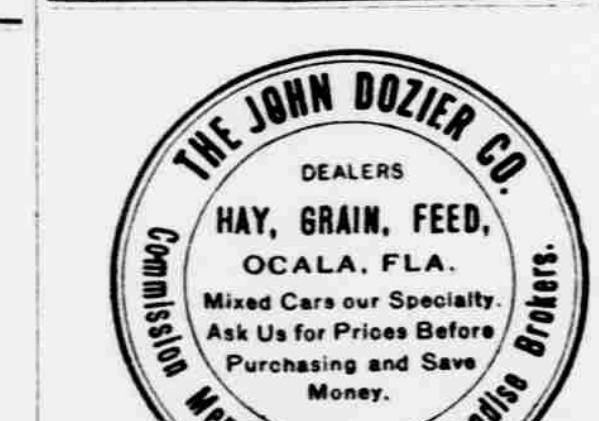

ALFRED AYER

I am a candidate for re-election, believing the people of Marion county know that no matter what a man's ability may be, it will require years of experience to make him a good assessor, and I have always been grateful for a man in your life who appreciated your support more highly or tried harder to deserve it. Alfred Ayer.

JAMES R. MOORHEAD

To my friends who supported me in the campaign of two years ago, I extend thanks, and with the best of feeling toward those who expressed their preference otherwise, I again respectfully present my name to you as a candidate for the office of tax assessor for Marion county.

My record for the past twenty-eight years is before you, and if the same justifies you in casting a vote my way, I assure you that it will be duly appreciated.

precluded, and know that you will never have cause to regret it.

It would afford me great pleasure to make a personal canvass and meet you in your homes, but time and means forbid, therefore will leave my claim in your hands for your worthy consideration.

All I ask of you is to be given a chance, and I will prove to you that it does not require years of experience to become a good assessor. It is unfair to measure my corn in some other's half-bushel, besides a new broom does sweep mightily clean. James R. Moorhead.

TAX COLLECTOR

W. L. COLBERT
